

Back to School!

Many of us are working hard at the ICB course. Thank you for your participation! We are about halfway through, now, and the material is indeed very interesting. This month's newsletter will be brief, as we are all quite busy. However, I didn't want to skip two months in a row. =)

Before we proceed, a HUGE "Thank You!" is owed to all of the generous breeders/TDR members/community members who donated to this effort. All sponsorships were provided out-of-pocket as personal offerings. Whether it was through direct sponsorship of a breeder, or a monetary contribution for the analysis itself, all are greatly appreciated.

Thank you again!

"Koda"

Snow Litter

Tarheel Ocracoke Treasure x Points Unknown Arrow

Koda is a sweet boy, sometimes a little goofy. He listens very well, and has a will to please -- he is sometimes accused of being a "Momma's Boy." He is very close to his people, never lagging far behind whether it is moving through the home, or out and about. Koda loves to hike with his family. He can be home alone for a few hours, although he doesn't prefer it. He would much rather have people around him. Koda is also gentle with children and older people.

He has sired two litters, and currently lives in the Netherlands. Koda is available for stud.

Catching up: On July 15, 2019, Stoney Creek welcomed eleven healthy puppies from Kami (Starlight Aurora) x Hachi (Hawthorne Francis Crick)

The Website

The TDR Website has been updated with the following:

- Breeding Regulations
- Code of Ethics for Breeders
- Ability to apply as a kennel \(and rules therein\)
- Ability to request kennel certificates
- Downloads of some forms (more to come!)
- Fee schedule listing
- Support for "Foundation Dogs" on the Studs page

We are working on adding active breeding females, the ability to submit litter registrations, and more!

For now, however, if you have an active foundation stud who is not listed, please let us know! Feel free to contact anyone on the BoD, the CoB, or Judy through the Facebook

Breeders' Group, email, or Messenger. Anyone left out is an oversight, and not intentional, and should not be misread as such! Please bear with us as things shake into order.

Tamaskan Rescue

As you may have already heard, Tamaskan Rescue is now a sub-committee of the TDR, so that they may better leverage the resources available through the TDR to help Tamaskan Dogs in need. They will continue to operate as they always have, and essentially be independent of any other TDR projects or efforts. Tamaskan Rescue would like to emphasize that they seek to help all Tamaskan Dogs internationally, regardless of registry. Their announcement is as follows:

The Tamaskan Rescue, a small nonprofit set with the goal to assess in rescuing and rehoming Tamaskan Dogs internationally, has been added as a sub-committee to the Tamaskan Dog Register.

While originally a non-profit in its own right, due to the lack of volunteers, resources, and reach as a singular organization, Tamaskan Rescue has chosen to join efforts with this established club in order to continue to operate with its original goals, intent, and continue to support the breed it loves. This change will allow for cleaner operations, improvements, the ability to accept donations, better assist breeders and the community as a whole, and make it easier in turn for the community to safeguard the dogs we have all come together to care for and love.
